

DAAD (Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst)
German Academic Exchange Service
Information Letter for Interested Students
(by Janina Bajramovic)

As a lecturer, I'm funded by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD, Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst). In this letter, I would like to provide you a few information on study and research in Germany, especially where you can find the personally most fitting scholarship, language course or study for you. Don't shy away from asking me in person or online, in case you have any questions. I'm glad to help!

The following links may give you an overview of the DAAD worldwide and in South Korea:

- <https://www.daad.de/en/>
- <https://www.daad.or.kr/ko/>
- <https://www.daad.or.kr/ko/about-us/daad-lektoren/>
(here, you can find my colleagues and me)

As cultural exchange strengthens the bonds between countries in postmodern times, the DAAD supports and funds interested people worldwide by providing scholarships, insurances, general help and more. And I inherently believe that we, both South Korea and Germany, can benefit from each other.

Unfortunately, in 2022, many changes have been applied to various programmes, as well as the funding policy. Certain study programmes can no longer be funded by the DAAD, but our engagement for exchange still stands strong and may help you to find a course, study, PhD or something else for lesser costs than usual. All available courses are listed on the websites on the second pages of this letter.

If you're unsure about a certain programme, please contact me so we can take a look at it together! Let me know if you have any questions.

On the next page you can find more information to several programmes. It'll be a pleasure if one of them may inspire you to go to Germany – The experience will be worth it!

We have different exchange programmes, as you can see below:

- If you want to study or complete your doctorate in German or English, the DAAD has the information you need. This section contains German and internationally oriented Bachelor's, Master's and doctoral programmes, but also language and short courses:
 - <https://www.daad.de/en/study-and-research-in-germany/courses-of-study-in-germany/>
 - For an instance, if you take a look at “all study programmes in Germany”, you can find around 3500 programmes for Economic Science and Law, almost 4000 programmes for Engineering Science and there are even almost 2000 programmes for studies in Art, Music or Design. There are more subjects, so please let me know yours and we can take a look together!
- Here you can look which one of the currently over 2000 international programmes are interesting for you:
 - <https://www2.daad.de/deutschland/studienangebote/international-programmes/en/>
 - 165 cities are available for studying abroad. It doesn't have to be only Munich, Berlin, Hamburg or Cologne!
 - 220 institutions are participating and waiting for creative, ambitious and interested trainees, students or interns to get in contact with!
 - 68 subjects of study are covered and you can refine the solutions based on your needs!
- Language Courses and Short Courses:
 - <https://www2.daad.de/deutschland/studienangebote/sommerkurse/en/>
 - If you'd like to take a course in 2023, the deadlines for applications are often around December 2022.
 - Over 50 cities are waiting for you to study in!
 - Over 300 course dates are available!
 - 48 subjects are represented in these courses. Find your personal study subject among them!
 - Note: Many language and short courses have been cancelled due to the current situation in Europe. I hope that this list is updated, though, and we can take a look at it together if you're interested in something here!
- Scholarships and Fellowships:
 - <https://www2.daad.de/deutschland/stipendium/datenbank/en/21148-scholarship-database/>
 - Over 70 different scholarships for interested people from South Korea: Many doctoral programmes and masters of all academic disciplines!
 - Scholarships and Fellowships are waiting for you!
